DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to a communication made on January 8, 2001.

The Drawings were received on April 9, 2001.

The Change of Address was received on November 13, 2002.

The Information Disclosure Statement was received on May 8, 2001.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "said public communications network" in line 1.

There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Regarding claim 10, Abecassis discloses that said public network is the Internet (Column 11, line 19).

Regarding claim 12, Abecassis discloses that said multimedia device is designed to (a) be automatically configured on said local home communications network (Column 5, lines 49 – 56); (b) resolve a host name in a URL using DNS call (Column 2, lines 45 - 50); (c) issue HTTP request; (d) receive HTTP responses containing MIME objects; (e) display WML and HTML content (Column 25, line 59 – Column 26, line 7); (f) parse said playlist; (g) interactively search a database of track, album, and playlist information; (h) mix said playlist with local content; and (i) receive channels of multimedia clips from said media server (Column 27, lines 41 – 52).

Regarding claim 13, Abecassis discloses that said multimedia device is designed to (a) be automatically configured on said local home communications network (Column 5, lines 49 – 56); (b) issue HTTP request; (c) receive HTTP responses containing MIME objects (d) display WML and HTML content (Column 25, line 59 – Column 26, line 7); (e) parse said playlist; and (f) mix said playlist with local content (Column 27, lines 41 – 52).

Regarding claim 14, Abecassis discloses a networked based multimedia delivery system comprising (Column 2, line 62 – Column 3, line 4): (a) at least one media server for generating a playlist file from a plurality of centrally stored multimedia clips in response to a user request (Column 15, lines 58 – 63); and (b) at least one multimedia device in communications with said at least one media server for generating said user request, wherein said at least one multimedia device is further used to receive and parse said generated playlist file (Column 15, lines 58 – 63).

Regarding claim 16, Abecassis discloses a multimedia device for use in a network based multimedia delivery system (Column 2, line 62 – Column 3, line 4) comprising: (a) means for automatically configuring the multimedia device on a communications network (Column 16, lines 31 – 37); (b) means for displaying at least one media server in communications with the multimedia device over said communications network, wherein said at least one media server has a plurality of stored multimedia clips; (c) means for interactively searching said plurality of stored multimedia clips using all or a portion of a text string (Column 25, lines 59 – 67); (d) means for passively searching said plurality of stored multimedia clips (Column 16, lines 47 – 67); (e) means for requesting at least one of said plurality of stored multimedia clips from said at least one media server; (f) means for receiving a remotely generated data file from said at least one media server over said communications network,

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 11 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Abecassis in view of Jones (6256623).

Regarding claims 11 and 15, Abecassis does not explicitly indicate that said playlist is comprised of XML. Jones teaches a multimedia system with a server that returns lists of information from a server and that the list can be in the form of XML (Column 9, lines 12 – 19). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use XML to structure the playlist in order to help the multimedia device display the contents of that list (Column 3, lines 28 – 37; Column 9, lines 14 – 21).
